

WHAT IS FEPLI?

Put simply; it's insurance that helps you keep your federal career.

FEPLI helps you protect you from allegations of misconduct.

It can provide both legal defense and financial liability coverage.

NIH trainees at all levels can face allegations of misconduct and wrongdoing - even when acting within the scope of your role.

Many assume that if they face an allegation, the agency will take care of it. In reality, that's not always the case. That's why so many feds and trainees carry Federal Employee Professional Liability Insurance (FEPLI).

Starr Wright USA is the creator of FEPLI, and we understand your unique needs. You'll receive legal aid from the nations' top-tier law firms. And you'll have the industry leader at your back.
